

Bridgend County Borough Council has confirmed that free parking is still available at two council-maintained car parks to support traders.

Running until the end of March, the first three hours of parking are free for those using the Rhiw multi-storey car park in Bridgend while at the John Street car park in Porthcawl, free parking is offered between noon and 3pm.

Free parking is also available at the Llynfi Road multi-storey in Maesteg.

For more information, visit the council's car parks webpage

<https://www.bridgend.gov.uk/residents/roads-transport-and-parking/car-parks/>